Who are we? Since 1995, the Alligator Warrior Festival is an experience of our region's pre-1859 history. It is organized by the Alligator Festival of Lake City FL, Inc., a volunteer operated 501(c)(3) public charity (EID 20-8580203).

Your sponsorship of this historical and cultural celebration builds community pride, attracts tourists, and passes our local legacy to our children and new residents. The Alligator Warrior Festival shows how the Native Americans, African Americans and European Americans lived and worked in our community in the early 19th century by demonstrating their skills and manners of dress, by telling their history and by reenacting one of their battles.

The festival is held at O'Leno State Park on the 3-day weekend (Fri-Sun) of the 3rd Saturday in October each year. The Friday is a student day without a battle reenactment.

Sponsorships are used to cover the costs of holding the festival, to operate the not-for-profit corporation, and to purchase any prizes that are not donated for the drawing-for-chance fund-raiser. For more information, please see our web site at alligatorfest.org
